DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-3, 4, 5 drawn to an enzyme substrate of the formula I, II, III.

Group II, claim(s) 6, drawn to an enzyme substrate of the formula V.

Group III, claim(s) 7, drawn to use of an enzyme substrate of the formula I to permeate a cell

Group IV, claim(s) 8, drawn to a method for preparing a substrate of the formula I.

Group V, claim(s) 9, 10 drawn to a fluorescent precipitate obtainable by cleavage of formula I.

Group VI, claim(s) 11-12, drawn to a method for detecting the activity of an enzyme using substrate of formula I.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Unity of invention exists only when there is a technical relationship among the claimed inventions involving one or more special technical features. The term "special technical features" is defined as meaning those technical features that define a contribution which each of the inventions considered as a whole, makes over the prior art. The determination is made based on the contents of the claims as interpreted in light of the description and drawings.

In the instant application, the inventions of groups I - IX do not share a common special technical feature because the enzyme substrate of the formula I (group I) are structurally different from the enzyme substrate of the formula V (group II). Therefore, the different formula and method of preparing it, its product processed do not form a single general inventive concept.

Election of Species

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

- A. The structure type of Y from among those instantly claimed-i.e.,  $>\text{C}=\text{O}$ ,  $>\text{C}=\text{CH}_2$ - etc., see, e.g., claims 1, 2, 6.
- B. The type of W from among those instantly claimed-i.e.,  $=\text{CH}-$ ,  $-\text{S}-$ ,  $-\text{O}-$  etc., -see, e.g., claims 1, 2, 6.
- C. The type of M from among those instantly claimed-i.e.,  $-\text{N}(\text{R}_3)-$ ,  $-\text{S}-$ ,  $-\text{O}-$  etc., - see, e.g., claims 1, 2, 6.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species (i.e., for Group A-elect a  $>\text{C}=\text{O}$  for example; for Group B-elect  $-\text{S}-$ , for example) to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the inventions of groups I - IX do not share a common special technical feature, as the enzyme substrate of group I has different structure as substrate of group IV, thus, the species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
